

Ruston native sworn in

Ruston native and recently honored as a Distinguished Ruston High School Alumnus, John Clint Williamson was recently sworn in as Ambassador at Large for War Crime Issues by Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice with members of his family in attendance. ABOVE: John Clint Williamson signs his oath of office as Ambassador at Large. RIGHT: John Clint Williamson takes the oath of office administered by Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, right, as his wife Ivana Nizich looks on.

Attending the official swearing in ceremony for John Clint Williamson as Ambassador of Large are (from left) Garland Gregory, Alice Williamson Gregory, Williamson's wife Ivana Nizich, John Clint Williamson and Secretary of State Condoleeza Rice.

Rustonites Alice Williamson Gregory and Garland Gregory are welcomed to the swearing in ceremony of her son John Clint Williamson (right background) by Secretary of State Condoleeza Rice (right front).